

CHILD OF THOMAS AND MARY TAPLEY

1551A MARY JANE TAPLEY (1833 - 1913)

Mary Jane TAPLEY was born at Rotterdam in Holland, being baptised there on 22 June 1833. Her father was Thomas TAPLEY (1789-1856), of Rotterdam, and her mother was Mary TAPLEY, nee MORFORD (1791-1867).¹

Mary Jane was only 5 years of age when the family emigrated to South Australia from London on the ship RAJASTHAN, arriving on 16 November 1838, settling at what became known as Tapley's Hill in early 1839.²

In 1841, Mary Jane, was aged 7 years, at the time of the Census was taken, but was listed as under 7 years, living in District B.³

Mary Jane grew up at Tapley's Hill.

She married at the age of 19 years, to John Frederick (Johann Friedrich) SCHRAMM, aged 28 years, a merchant of Rundle Street, Adelaide. The marriage took place on 18 August 1852 at Christ Church (Anglican) Chapel, O'Halloran Hill, and was conducted by the Revd John Whitelaw SCHOALES. Witnesses to this marriage were Thomas TAPLEY and Margaret Ann TAPLEY.⁴

They were to have 5 children of their marriage between 1857 and 1865 as follows-

1551A1 Alfred SCHRAMM, Born at Unley, South Australia on 30 April 1857.⁵

1551A2 Marie Luise SCHRAMM, born on 20 March 1859, in South Australia, at the Bay Road in Adelaide.⁶

1551A3 John Frederick SCHRAMM, born 3 December 1860, at Kapunda.⁷

1551A4 Alice Jane SCHRAMM, born 31 May 1863 at Kapunda, but died also 1863, an infant.⁸

1551A5 Emilie SCHRAMM, born 26 April 1865 at Kapunda, South Australia.⁹

1551A6 Carl Herman SCHRAMM, born 11 Mar 1871 at Kapunda, South Australia.¹⁰

Mary Jane and her husband had moved to Kapunda in 1860, where her husband was established as a Wheat Buyer with a store on South Terrace, Kapunda.¹¹

About 1880 the family moved to Carrieton, South Australia where her husband John was still a Wheat Buyer.

By 1885, they were back in the Adelaide Metropolitan area, possibly because of her husband's deteriorating health, as he had contracted Cancer of the Stomach. He died at their daughter's home at New Parkside, south Australia on 11 September 1885.¹²

Her youngest son, Carl died at Orroroo, South Australia on 28 January 1890 at the age of 19 years.¹³

Mary Jane SCHRAMM, nee TAPLEY subsequently died at the age of 80 years, in Adelaide, on 5 November 1913.

Both Mary Jane and her husband, John Frederick, are buried in the West Terrace Cemetery, Adelaide.¹⁴

SPOUSE OF MARY JANE TAPLEY

JOHANN FRIEDRICH SCHRAMM (1822 - 1885)

Johann Friedrich SCHRAMM, was born in Germany in 1822.¹

Nothing is known of his childhood and early life.

He emigrated to South Australia in 1850 on the Ship ALFRED, and became a Merchant in Rundle Street, Adelaide where he was established by 1852, and known more generally as John Frederick SCHRAMM.

It was while he was here that he married at the age of 28 Years, on 18 August 1852, to Mary Jane TAPLEY, aged 19 years of Tapley's Hill. The marriage took place in Christ Church (Anglican), O'Halloran Hill, SA, in a ceremony conducted by Revd. John W. SCHOALES. Thomas TAPLEY and Margaret Ann TAPLEY were witnesses.²

They had 5 Children of their Marriage-

1. Alfred SCHRAMM born 30 April 1857 at Unley.
2. Marie Luise SCHRAMM, born 20 March 1859 at the Bay Road.
3. John Frederick SCHRAMM, born 3 December 1860 at Kapunda.

5. Emilie SCHRAMM, Born 26 April 1865 at Kapunda.
6. Carl Herman SCHRAMM, born 11 March 1871, Kapunda.³

By this time, John was well established as a Wheat Buyer at Kapunda where he had an established a business on South Terrace, Kapunda.⁴

John was also interested in Civic affairs, and became a Town Councillor for the East Ward in Kapunda for several years. He also held the position of Town Auditor during his time in Kapunda.⁵

About 1880 the family moved north to Carrieton, where he established his Wheat Buying agency. While here he maintained an interest in public affairs and was appointed as a Justice of the Peace.⁶

John contracted Cancer of the Stomach, and they moved back to Adelaide and were living with their daughter at New Parkside when on 11 September 1885, he died in his 63rd year.⁷

Page 279- J.F. SCHRAMM, J.P.

An old and well-respected resident of Kapunda, in which town he carried on an extensive business for a number of years. He took an active interest in all public matters, and for a time represented the East Ward in the Town Council, and also held the position of Town Auditor. Subsequently, with his family, Mr Schramm removed to Carrieton, where his interest in public affairs was still maintained, and here, as at Kapunda, he soon won the esteem of all who knew him, and his name was added to the Commission of Peace. Mr Schramm was a native of Germany, where he was born in 1822. His death occurred at his daughter's residence, New Parkside, near Adelaide, on September 11, 1885 in his sixty-third year.

1551A1 ALFRED SCHRAMM (1857-1925)

Alfred SCHRAMM was born at Unley, South Australia on the 30 April 1857, and was the first child of Johann Friedrich SCHRAMM(1822-1885) a merchant of Unley, and Mary Jane SCHRAMM, Nee TAPLEY (1833-1913). His birth was registered by his Aunt, Elizabeth SHARP(E), on 4 June 1857.¹

Alfred did his schooling mainly at Kapunda, South Australia where his father had moved as a Wheat Buyer. A particular friend he had at Kapunda was J.D. RENNER, the son of Dr Renner, who lived nearby.²

When he left school, he joined his father in the Wheat Merchant trade, first at Kapunda, and later at Carrieton, when the family moved there. Later when his father died in 1885, Alfred took over the business at Carrieton.³

On 13 September 1888, Alfred Schramm, now aged 31 years, married Florence Alice ROBINSON, aged 21 years, At St George Church, Gawler, South Australia.⁴

They had 4 Children of their marriage-

1551A11 Alfred Stanley SCHRAMM, born 4 March 1893 at Hyde Park.⁵

1551A12 Frederick (Robinson) SCHRAMM, born at Southwark on 21 February 1892.⁶

1551A13 Herbert Tapley SCHRAMM, born 29 July 1895 at North Adelaide.⁷

1551A14 Arthur Harold SCHRAMM, born on 25 May 1901 at Prospect.⁸

Alfred had by now moved to the Adelaide Metropolitan area, and became a Brewer in partnership with a Mr. Newing at Southwark Brewery. They produced a Beer known as "SCHRAMM'S OK HOP BEER".⁹

In 1894, Alfred was listed as a Manufacturer of North Adelaide, when he was a witness at the marriage of his cousin Mary Frances TAPLEY, daughter of John TAPLEY.¹⁰

By 1897 Alfred was in the Soap making business with premises at Holland Street Thebarton.¹¹

Alfred's soap business was later burnt out in a fire, and he was put out of business.¹²

During the World War 1, when there was a lot of animosity towards German families, Alfred along with many other German families changed their names to avoid persecution. Alfred changed his Surname from SCHRAMM to SEATON in about 1917. It is not known if all the children adopted this name or not.¹³

Alfred SEATON latterly lived at Unley, where he died in 1924.¹⁴

Horatio Goldie McKITTRICK (1867 - 1951)

Horatio Goldie McKITTRICK was born in about 1867, probably in Scotland. His father was William Letham McKITTRICK (1829 - 1910), and his mother was Jessie McKITTRICK, nee GOLDIE (1832 - 1902).¹

In 1897 Horatio Goldie McKITTRICK was Secretary of the South Australia Caledonian Society, located in Hunters Chambers, at 70 Grenfell Street, Adelaide. His private address at the time was Oxford Terrace, New Parkside.²

In 1898, Horatio married at the age of 31 years to Emilie SCHRAMM, 33 years.³

They had two children in the ensuing years-

1. George Goldie McKITTRICK, born 1903
2. Emily Marion McKITTRICK, born 1905.⁴

By 1927, the family were living at Glenelg, where his wife Emilie died on 24 January.⁵

It seems likely that his daughter Emily continued to live at home and care for her father, as in 1940, Emily was listed as living at 9 Hastings Street, Glenelg.⁶

Horatio Goldie McKITTRICK died on 13 February 1951, at the age of 84 years, and was buried with his wife and parents in West Terrace Cemetery.⁷
